Email: cilldi@ualberta.ca

The bursary was established to assist CILLDI in fulfilling its purpose of supporting individuals at the community level by providing basic training in linguistics, native languages, second language teaching, and other aspects of professional enhancement such as language-related research and policy making. The CILLDI Program will supply tools to Indigenous language activists so that they can better promote, protect, practice, and pass on their language.

The Bursary is funded by the University of Alberta's Provost Office and will support individuals pursuing courses at CILLDI Summer School. Bursaries are intended for students registered in two 3-credit courses (one in Block I and one in Block II). U of A Provost Bursary applicants must complete the application form and submit it with a letter of support from members of their community.

The Bursary will cover:

- University of Alberta Open Studies Application Fee (if necessary)
- Tuition for two 3-credit courses
- A meal plan at St. Joseph's College
- On-Campus Accommodation at St. Joseph's Men's Residence Hall OR an $800 housing stipend for students who chose to stay elsewhere (e.g. Schäffer Hall, Campus Towers, etc.)

Note: Travel and parking expenses will not be covered by the bursary. Also note, the University of Alberta can support a limited number of students - take care to fill out this application form.

Application Process:

Submit the completed application form and a letter of support to the CILLDI Office in the Department of Linguistics at the University of Alberta by mail, email or fax. The letter of support must come from a member of your community (such as an education or culture director, tribal chief or councilor, Métis chair/president, tribal college personnel, Elder). This letter of support should focus on your commitment to the work you are doing or hope to do on the language.

We will not consider applications that do not have the letter of support.

Deadline: March 20, 2017
